

#WE NEVER SAY
NO
MARCH 2020
ISSUE 19Dave Ayres makes NHL history – thanks to his mom and St. Michael's kidney transplant team. READ MORE >>

CORONAVIRUS UPDATE

Two St. Michael's COVID-19 research projects receive federal funding.

Drs. Haibo Zhang and Prabhat Jha are among the researchers searching for answers to help stop the spread of the coronavirus.

READ MORE >>

St. Michael's Hospital is closely monitoring the status of the coronavirus as it unfolds. How to protect yourself and those around you.

LEARN MORE >>

TOP STORY

Women in medical leadership: Where to now?

In honour of International Women's Day, Dr. Carolyn Snider, Chief of Emergency Medicine, tells us how she encourages women to take on leadership roles.

READ MORE >>

A PATIENT'S STORY

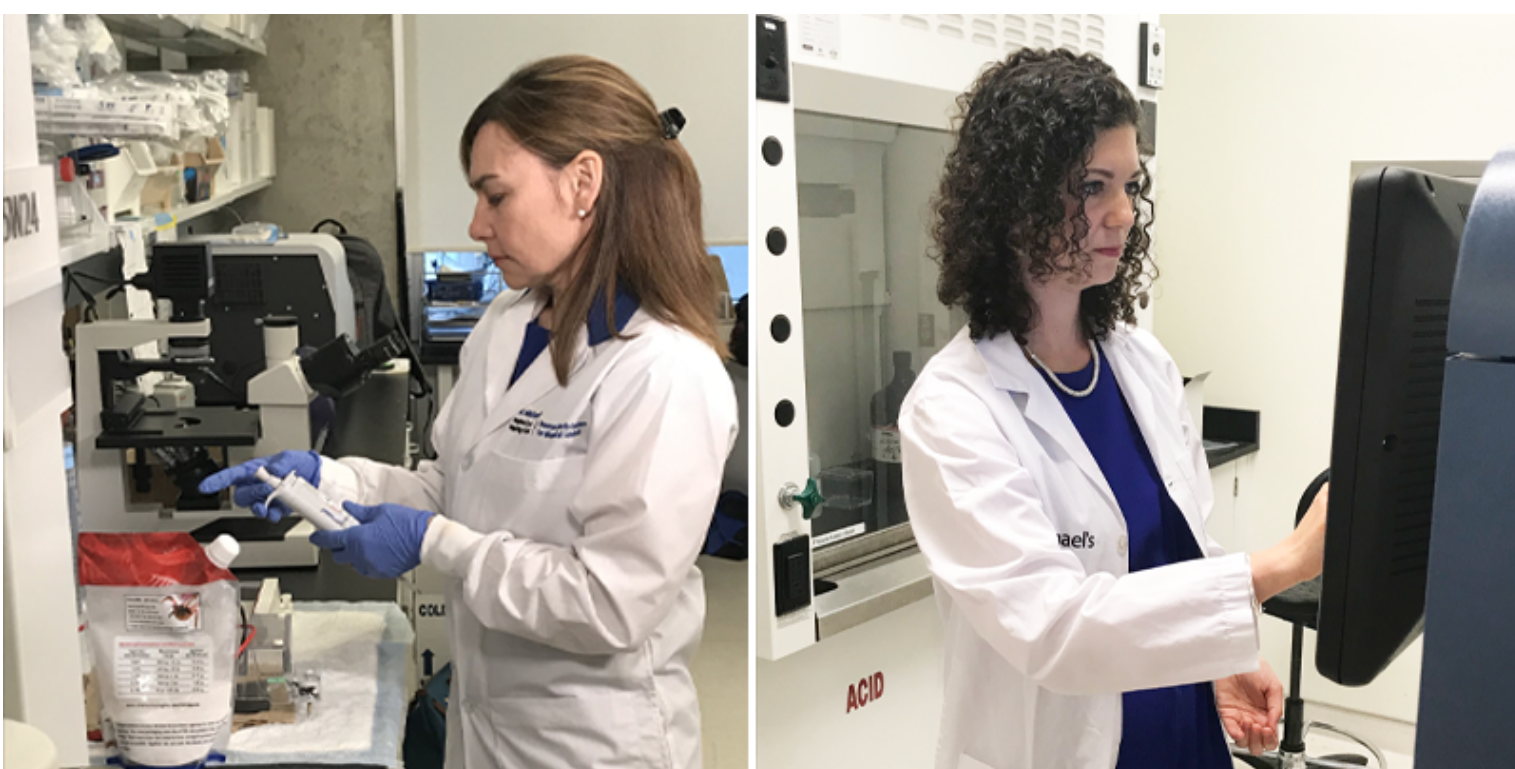

A complicated pregnancy.

St. Michael's maternal care team goes to the wall to deliver baby Sophia.

READ MORE >>

ALL-STARS

Women tackling multiple sclerosis.

Drs. Dalia Rotstein and Shannon Dunn use their formidable skills to advance research, care and mentorship at St. Michael's BARLO MS Centre.

READ MORE >>

DONOR SPOTLIGHT

Vinny and her son nine months post-treatment.

“It's a hospital, but it felt like home.”

Breast cancer survivor Vinny Bhathal is giving back to the St. Michael's team that went above and beyond to give her the care and support she needed.

READ MORE >>

YOUR HEALTH

(from left) Drs. Andrea Simpson, Deborah Robertson, Sari Kives and Alysha Nensi.

True or false? Women's health myths debunked (or confirmed).

We asked St. Michael's health experts to weigh in on some common (mis)conceptions about health issues facing women, and how they're tackling them. Here is what they said.

READ MORE >>

STMICHAELSFUNDATION.COM

30 Bond Street, Toronto, Ontario,
M5B 1W8, Canada | 416.864.5000
Charitable Registration: #122963663RR0001
Privacy Policy | Terms of Use | Unsubscribe